Happy Thanksgiving

Would You Be Thankful?

Would you be thankful if you had
Only a cabin of logs for a home,
A crude fireplace for draughty warmth,
And a candle to light the dreary room?

Would you kneel tonight on a bearskin rug
Before crawling into your pine-needle bed,
And thank your God with fervent grace
For the crude bark roof above your head?

Would Thanksgiving be the same to you
If there weren't a store in a thousand miles,
And all you loved and held so dear
Were far away in the British Isles?

Would you like to trade with the Pilgrim band?
They were thankful for liberty.
Look up at the Stars and Stripes tonight,
And breathe your thanks that you are free.

SYMBOL OF THANKSGIVING—For many, many years the turkey has served artists as a symbol for Thanksgiving and because he is larger and more of an exhibitionist than the hen, the gobbler is chosen for the role. Therefore, we are following custom in presenting the picture above. The turkey was one of a large number that Floyd Martin, who has a poultry farm on 80th ave., Frankfort township, prepared for the Thanksgiving market. Standing beside the big bird, is a son of the family, 2-year-old Danny Martin, whom Indians probably would name Young-man-not-afraid-of-turkeys. Danny weighs 30 pounds and the turkey runs about 10 pounds less. There is a lot of whoo-sh in a 20-pound gobbler on the loose and this particular bird had been quite demonstrative in trying to get him lined up for the picture but all the hectic goings on didn't phase Danny. He just laughed and right after this shot was made he tried to ride the turkey.

Find Missing Boy Serving 30 Days in Florida Work Camp

Richard M. Souliotis, 14, of 6830 W. 112th place, Worth, who had been missing since Oct. 29, was found by federal Bureau of Investigation officers in a work camp in Miami, Fla., where he had been sentenced for 30 days for vagrancy.

The youth, who had been driven to Tinley Park by friends and dropped off at the roller skating rink, 177th and Oak Park ave., told authorities he was 13 years old when picked up in Miami.

His parents left for Miami last Friday and plan to spend a short vacation there with the youth, before returning with him to Worth.

CROP Campaign Yields 1,730 Bushels Of Corn

The Rev. Ben F. Ray, of the Frankfort Methodist church, and publicity chairman of the CROP campaign workers in Will county, reports that with 75 per cent of the reports tabulated, workers collected 1,730 bushels of corn and $1,420 in cash, which will be used to purchase corn for overseas relief.

Following special dedication ceremonies, attended by members of the CROP county board and area CROP leaders last week, a carload of corn, 1,500 bushels, was shipped out of the Peotone Grain Elevator.

The Rev. Day said another carload of corn will be shipped from Will county in the near future.

Farm-grown staple food supplies will be distributed by missionaries and church agencies in other lands to hungry and destitute people, announced Glen Shippey, of Peotone, campaign director, and William Polley, county CROP board chairman. The greatest need is among Hungarian refugees in Austria and refugees in Hong Kong and in the Near East.

MOKENA

Thursday morning, 9 am. the Methodist church will provide a special service for those who wish to attend. The Rev. Ben F. Day of Frankfort will deliver the message.

Immanuel Lutheran church, the Rev. A. W. Gode, will preach a special sermon suitable for the occasion.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 27, a special service will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. William Riemann in the St. John's United Church of Christ, at 7:30 pm.

FRANKFORT

Union services with the Frankfort, Green Garden Methodist churches in the St. Peters Evangelical church Wednesday evening, Nov. 27 at 7:30.

TINLEY PARK

Trinity Lutheran church will have a special service at 10 a.m. Community Bible church will conduct special services at 10 a.m. Methodist church services Wednesday evening at 8 pm. with communion.

A campaign to raise $135,000 to build an addition to St. John's United Church of Christ was launched at Mokena yesterday by members of the congregation.

A dinner attended by the canvassers was held at the church Monday night at which Dr. Karl Meyer, D.D., of Chicago, was the principal speaker. Mrs. Joseph Alexander, who was chairman of the committee on arrangements for the dinner also served as toastmaster.

Dr. Meyer is experienced in fund raising campaigns and at present is in charge of the drive for money to finance a multi-million dollar hospital at Oak Lawn. He is connected with the Evangelical hospital at Chicago which will operate the proposed Oak Lawn hospital.

He spoke inspiringly and the canvassers left the affair quite enthused. They expect to complete the fund raising campaign in two weeks.

Membership Grows

Groundwork for the drive was laid last week with the mailing out of a brochure to the 485 members of the congregation to acquaint them with the needs of the church.

The church is growing, as is the Sunday school and it is necessary to provide more room, the people agree. The Sunday school is especially crowded and the addition planned is to eliminate this congestion.

It is what has become known among church architects as a Christian education building and is to be of two stories, with exterior dimension of 102 by 54 feet. It will be attached to the present church building which was erected in 1922, at the north end.

The addition will provide rooms for nursery, kindergarten and primary classes as well as five classrooms for older children. The structure also will house a church office, workroom, pastor's study and library, 38 by 20 feet, for small meetings, receptions, small parties and overflow dining space.

No High Pressure

It was explained at the dinner there is nothing complicated or high pressure, about the canvass plan. Every member of the church will be visited by a fellow member.

"He will ask," to quote from the brochure, "that you reach a decision, which you have prayerfully considered as your expression of gratitude to God for the many blessings of life. To give is to live."

It was pointed out that (Continued to page 16)

Water Main Claims Block Sewer Program

The number of individual users of the proposed Mokena sewer system who have signed applications for such service accompanied by deposits of $10 each, has passed the 350 mark originally set up as a must by the financing firms who propose to buy the bonds that will meet the cost of the program. Later they reduced the number to 300 signers.

Sale of the bonds, however, is still being held up because of claims against the village for payments on some water line extensions that were put by realty promoters.

The village board, thru its attorney, Raymond Hoolehan, is now in the process of negotiating a settlement of these claims which a former board held to be invalid.

Three mains were installed some years ago on Parker ave., one on Wolf road, and one to serve a subdivision in the Mineral Springs area. The extensions were financed privately and an agreement was reached with the then existing board that the developers would be repaid their actual costs out of the water revenues.

It is understood that the costs of the Parker and Wolf road mains are practically paid off by the village but only a small portion of the Mineral Springs line has been paid. The Chicago Title and Trust Co. has a trust (Continued to page 16)

Municipalities Get Sales Tax Collected For Last August

After taking its usual huge bite the state is now distributing $3,866,331 to cities and villages as their share of the half cent sales tax levied by municipalities that was collected in August.

Chicago's share was $1,719,469 East Gillespie, down in the coal fields, collected $3.51 but the lowest amount credited to any of the more than 900 communities on the list is zero, zero, zero for Willisville.

Mokena's share was $593; Frankfort, $828; New Lenox, $1,223; Orland Park, $571; Manhattan, $426; Tinley Park, $2,074; Park Forest, $7,208; Lockport, $2,031; Blue Island, $13,895; Chicago Heights, $21,000; Evergreen Park, $15,443; Dolton, $2,387; Flossmoor, $481; Hazel Crest $757; Oak Lawn, $9,062; Posen, $838; Robbins, $461; Oak Forest, $735 and Joliet $45,513.

Frankfort Bank to Close Wednesdays and Not Thursdays

The Frankfort State Bank has changed the hours of doing business. Beginning Dec. 11, they will be closed all day Wednesday instead of Thursday as in the past.

Banking hours for the week, as announced by Al Hochberger, cashier, are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. The bank will also be open on Friday from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and on Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

New Lenox Boy Shot In Thigh — Hunting Accident

The condition of 15 year old Chester Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Hodges, Sr., Roberts road, New Lenox, is reported as improved and x-ray examination reveals there is gunshot fracture of the right thigh.

Chester was accidentally shot last Sunday by a hunting companion. It was said that 120 pellets from a .410 shell penetrated his thigh.

He was taken to Silver Cross hospital by his companions and is being held there for treatment.

Chester and four other boys, were hunting south of New Lenox Sunday afternoon, about 2 o'clock. Richard Wade, 17, New Lenox, started to load his gun. The gun was accidentally discharged. The Hodges boy was standing about 25 feet in front of Wade when the accident occurred and caught the blast on his right thigh.

The other boys on the expedition were David Novak, 17, and George Dowles, both of New Lenox, and Charles Florey, 14, of Mokena.

Sheriff's deputies were informed and made an investigation which brought out the facts concerning the shooting as already given.

The first 1958 panel truck built by Ford was delivered to Cooper Show agency of Frankfort which in turn sold it to Floyd Martin, Frankfort township, for use as a delivery truck. Mr. Martin operates a poultry business.

Dairy Farmers Get 7¢ Premium On October Milk

All dairy farmers in Chicago and suburban markets have received an additional premium of seven cents a hundredweight for their October milk deliveries.

This premium was negotiated by Pure Milk Association with Chicago and suburban market dealers in September. It went into effect on Oct. 1 and applies only to milk which dealers use for bottled fluid purposes. This is known as Class I milk.

In its successful negotiations PMA established a Class I price of $4.15 thru February, 1958.

The total premium on Class I milk in October was about 14 cents per hundredweight. About only one-half of the total milk supply in a month is used as bottled fluid milk so farmers received only half of the total negotiated premium and this applied to all milk they shipped during October.

5 Cents in November

The premium on Class I milk for November will be 9c per hundredweight. This is expected to yield about 5c to dairy farmers on all milk they ship in Nov.

Chicago's milk market administrator announced an Oct. blend price of $3.69 for milk testing 3.5 per cent butterfat and delivered during October to milk plants in a zone 70 miles from Chicago.

The premium of seven cents a hundredweight on all milk is additional to the announced blend. It applies to all dairy farmers who ship to Chicago inspected plants regardless of their distance from Chicago.

Altho sales of milk were high for October and compared favorably with September and with October of 1956, an increase of almost 21 million lbs. of milk over October, 1956, depressed the price about eleven cents per hundredweight over that month.

Mounting extra milk production over the past year has depressed the Class I price by 12 cents per hundredweight. Another depressing element in October, 1957, was a lower basic price, about seven cents per hundredweight below the corresponding month one year ago.

Horn of Plenty Pie!

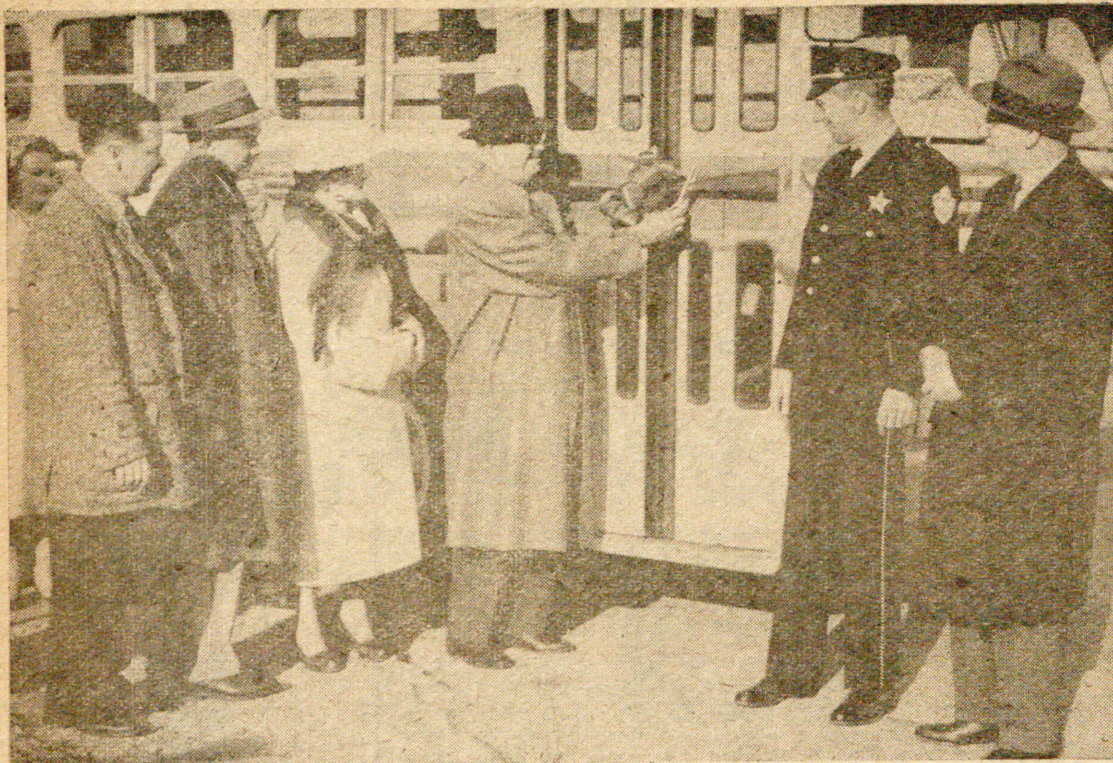

For this holiday season treat family and friends to traditional desserts, but give them a modern touch. So, by all means serve Pumpkin Pie, but for a welcome change, try this new version: Make a crisp and crunchy flaked coconut pastry crust, for your favorite Pumpkin Chiffon filling. Then add a timely decoration in the form of a toasted coconut horn with any bright candies "pouring" from it in plentiful confusion. This pie is pretty enough for a centerpiece... delicious enough for a special party.

Coconut Shortbread Crust

1/3 cup butter
3 tablespoons sugar
1 egg yolk
1 cup sifted flour
1 cup Baker's Angel Flake Coconut

Cream butter and sugar. Add egg yolk and blend well. Add flour, mixing thoroughly. Then add coconut. Pat mixture into 9-inch pie pan. Chill 30 minutes, then bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 25 to 30 minutes, or until browned. Cool.

BUS SERVICE GETS OFFICIAL NOD—Orland Park residents turned out Tuesday morning for the ribbon cutting ceremony that marked formal beginning of the Orland-Chicago loop service by the Southwest Suburban Transit company. The buses have been in operation for about a week and are finding increasing favor among residents of the area, it was reported.

Mayors Urge SW Cook Co. For U. of I. Site

Mayor Elmer H. Knudsen and Leland H. Rayson, of Tinley Park, attended a meeting of village mayors and officials held at Markham last week, to discuss the possibility of locating a branch of the University of Illinois in the southwestern suburban area.

State Senator Frank Ozinga, who was present at the meeting, has issued a request to citizens to write letters to Park Livingston, LaGrange, president of the board of trustees of the University, stating views on the location of the proposed branch.

Recently the trustees visited sites in the southwest area of Cook county proposed by the Regional Association of South Cook-Will County municipalities.

A petition for the establishment of a branch of the University of Illinois in southwest Cook county was signed by the mayors and presidents of cities and villages, as well as other

New Treat For The Youngsters

Here's a new dessert and party surprise that's certain to make you the most popular mother in the neighborhood—Jelly Roll Pops. The tots will love these bright jelly roll slices edged in creamy chocolate or white frosting. Miniature jelly rolls (2½ ounces) from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department are the perfect size for Jelly Roll Pops, and the frosting may be melted dot chocolate, made from prepared mixes, or from your own favorite frosting recipe.

JELLY ROLL POPS

Miniature jelly rolls (plan three pops per jelly roll)
Large meat skewers or narrow wooden tongue depressors
Frosting

Thoroughly chill or lightly freeze jelly rolls. Slice each into three even slices. Insert a skewer carefully but firmly into the center of the bottom of each slice. Spread outside edges and back of each slice with frosting. Place, frosted side up, on baking sheet. Chill before serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Mazurowski of 67th avenue are happy over the arrival of a daughter born Nov. 20 in South Shore hospital. She weighed eight pounds, 13 ounces. Two brothers and two sisters welcomed the new baby who has been named Margaret, and mother home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Webster of Oriole ave. are delighted over the progress their tiny baby made during the last week. She was born premature and weighed two pounds seven ounces. She was in an incubator and under oxygen for the first week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brandau welcomed into their family a new baby boy born Nov. 24 in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet. He weighed nine pounds, three ounces. The Brandaus have a daughter, Karen, age 6 and a son, Michael, age 5.

Residents in the Parkside area will remember Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nebel who moved to the Washington D. C. region two years ago. The Nebels have adopted a baby daughter to complete their family.

Houseguest at the Nicholas Schullen home last week was Mrs. Hubert Williams of Dumont, New Jersey. Mrs. Williams is an aunt of Mrs. Schullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Vander Veen of 175th street recently entertained 32 guests at dinner to honor the birthday of Mr. VanderVeen. Guests were from Chicago, Dolton and Lansing. The high point was the cutting of a beautiful four tier square birthday cake baked by Mrs. VanderVeen.

Donna Jenkins celebrated her fourth birthday Saturday and entertained a number of her small friends. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jenkins of 179th st.

There will be a gathering of the Lowery family Thanksgiving Day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowery in Peoria. The Lowell Farquhars, James Lowery and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ova Lowery and infant son, all of Tinley Park, will attend.

Mrs. John Wilson of Chicago Heights was the guest of honor at a baby shower given in the home of Mrs. Dallas Mucci Saturday evening.

Edmund R. Dagenais, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dagenais, has recently completed a six month cruise in the Far East, visiting Hawaii, Midway Island, Hong Kong, Formosa and Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Manning will have as their Thanksgiving dinner guests Mr. Lily Smith and family of Chicago.

THANKSGIVING GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. George Keuch and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keuch and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Teutemacher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wojciechowski and daughters will spend the holiday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Pauline Klick in Chicago. Other guests will be two brothers, Frank and Edward of Chicago and a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Permoda and family of Wayland, Mich.

PRESENT FLAG TO VILLAGE BOARD—Boy Scouts of Orland Park presented an American flag to the village board there Monday night for use in the council chamber. The presentation was made by George Flondor and the flag was accepted by Mayor W. R. Schussler, Jr. Young Flondor and the boy next to him, Bob Kaiser, are Explorer Scouts. Flondor with a

Star rank and Kaiser with a life rank. The other two boys are John Leavitt and John Taylor (the latter at the extreme right). Scoutmaster Joseph Kaiser, of Troop 251, was in charge of the ceremony. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by the Scouts and the audience and board members. (Robert Porter photo)

Mosquito Dist. Getting Ready For 1958 Program In South Cook County

While the majority of south Cook county residents take stock of storm windows and fuel supplies, the South Cook County Mosquito Abatement District is taking stock of mosquito production during the 1957 season, the highest in its brief history, and carrying out plans for next season in the light of this experience.

Continuing abnormal rainfall during the spring and early summer culminated in the worst flood in fifty years on July 12-13, 1957. These conditions resulted in a 141 per cent increase in the amount of known larval (mosquito wiggler) producing sources over the preceding year, and a 200 per cent increase over the district's first year of operations—1955.

In spite of these very large increases in the acreage of mosquito production, sources, stepped up field operations utilizing a helicopter and increasing the hours of ground control work (including provision for spraying 7,639 acres with mist blowers and thermal aerosol generators) held the 1957 peak of adult mosquito activity to a substantially lower increase—only 60 per cent more than the highest 1955 peak.

These events have their greatest significance in planning for the district's pre-hatching treatment program, its soil sampling program, and its work with municipalities. Estimates in man hours and materials have been revised upward, and certain of the district's winter-time activities are being stepped up as a result of the 1957 experience.

Rain a Problem

In pre-hatch treatment, insecticides in granular form are laid on the ground during dry seasons in preparation for subsequent floodings that will allow mosquito eggs to hatch. Whereas the district had been thinking in terms of the effect of a three to four-inch rainfall as a maximum for its pre-hatch work, it is now obliged to think in terms closer to six inches.

To economically and effectively carry out the pre-hatch treatment the district must know where the sources of production are. This information comes from soil sampling or from the larval record of previous years. During the week following July 12 last summer it was impossible to sample all of the areas of standing water and to do a vastly increased chemical control job at the same time (over 7000 acres were treated during that single week), therefore the gap in information has to be filled by the soil-sampling program which began in October and will continue until the ground is frozen. The analysis of these soil samples is the major laboratory activity during the winter months.

Last summer's experience, then indicates a need for increasing the amount of inspection, sampling and analysis and increasing the number of acres to be pre-hatched next spring. This means that pre-hatching will begin somewhat earlier next year, probably by the first of February. These increased activities place an additional demand on the district's manpower, it was said.

Increases Budget

One of the ways to effectively increase the district's manpower, it was explained, is thru the co-operative effort of municipalities whose role is assumed in the Illinois statutes authorizing mosquito abatement districts. The increased "floodwater consciousness" of the communities and city neighborhoods as a result of last summer's flood has increased their receptiveness to the district's recommendation that they adopt and enforce ordinances designed to prevent and/or correct the man-made mosquito breeding sources within their boundaries, officials said. If the municipalities co-operate with the district by passing and enforcing such ordinances, the district's limited manpower will be released for concentration on the many natural (as opposed to man-made) situations both within and outside municipal boundaries, it was stated by a district spokesman.

The necessary increases in abatement district manpower, materials and contractual services (plane or helicopter) occasioned by the 1957 experience are reflected in the 1957-58 budget by a 10 per cent increase in these categories.

Pupil In Wheel Chair "Attends" Classes At Bremen High School

There are more than 1500 students attending classes in Bremen High school. But one student, freshman Paul Buck, of Tinley Park, is present at every class, altho sitting at home in his wheel chair.

Paul was stricken with polio four years ago, which paralyzed his legs and diaphragm, but did not diminish his interest in the world around him.

Thru the ingenuity of science, he has been able to attend classes since seventh grade via a telecommunication system installed between his home and the school by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. He personally accepted his diploma at graduation exercises last June in the Tinley Park public school.

Keeps in Contact

Paul is able to continue his education at Bremen High school using the same system. He is studying English, science, algebra and social studies.

The electronic device installed in his room, enables him to have vocal contact with the classroom.

All of the equipment is the property of the Telephone company, and has been installed on a rental basis.

The Tinley Park Lions club has been meeting the difference in cost between what is allotted the school for each pupil and what it costs for Paul to continue his education, since he first "returned" to school.

Must Avoid Colds

This method of educating handicapped children was the first one to be installed in the suburban area. It is used more extensively in Chicago, particularly in hospitals where children may be confined for extended treatment. Joliet now has placed a similar system in use for handicapped children.

Altho limited in his movements, Paul's parents see that he enters into all possible activities. He accompanies them to the range of the local Archery club and practices shooting at the target.

Daily exercises and baths, by means of a special pool, are supervised by his parents.

One of Paul's greatest difficulties is the danger involved should he catch cold. His paralyzed diaphragm makes breathing difficult, necessitating the use of an oxygen tent. For this reason, Paul's parents must use extra caution to keep him isolated from persons with colds.

Hollstein School Club Will Hold Supper Dec. 11

According to its president, Mrs. Arthur Frundie, the Hollstein school Community club are planning big things for the next three months.

The Dec. 5 meeting will see completion of plans for a chili supper to be held Dec. 11 in the school, 175th street near 94th.

Special entertainment for the Dec. 5 meeting is being arranged by Mrs. Clarence Coy and Mrs. Milton Bettenhausen.

Each meeting night, two mothers are responsible for refreshments. For the December meeting, to which parents and their children are invited, Mrs. Steve Kozbiel and Mrs. Wilbur Lang will serve.

Another important innovation for the 20 students at Hollstein school is a "hot lunch" program under the leadership of Mrs. Bettenhausen, assisted by mothers of the students. Monday, Nov. 25, the students were served a complete turkey dinner with all trimmings. The group is being commended on this project as a well balanced lunch is an important factor to growing children.

Over the nine-year 1948-56 period, workers' wages rose an average of 61.4 per cent. Average productivity per worker, on the other hand, rose only 26.1 per cent. The difference was in large part made up by increased prices.

THIS WEEK

—in Washington

With

Clinton Davidson

In two world wars we have paid a high price for the complacency which preceded them. Are we about to pay an even higher price a third time?

That is the life or death question that our top political and military leaders are pondering this week in Washington. Our survival as a nation and your own personal survival could hinge on the answer.

Russian scientists have placed in the hands of the Communist dictators the intercontinental missile which we, at the present time, can neither defend against nor match in retaliation.

It no longer needs to be a military secret that we had ample warning of this as far back as 1948. I can now report from personal knowledge that story for publication.

It is a shocking story that lays bare the smug complacency that lulled us into a false and dangerous sense of unwarranted security.

This is the story. Names are withheld to protect, even now, those who took part in one of the most daring and successful espionage efforts of our time.

Shortly after the end of World War II a well-known manufacturer of planes for our military went to Germany to talk with some of the scientists who had worked on jet planes and missiles for Hitler.

Two of Germany's best scientists in that field returned with him to work on the development of similar projects in this country. There was no question, after two years, of their loyalty to America.

They volunteered to go behind the Iron Curtain to find out what Russia was doing. Our officials knew and approved of the plan. The two returned to Germany and soon were "imported" by Russia to work with other German and Russian scientists.

The fact that they had worked in the United States was not known to the Russians. For six months they probed the secrets of Russian progress in the science of military weapon development.

Then, one day in 1948, they slipped back into Berlin. A friend, not knowing of their work in Russia, jokingly remarked to them that he had heard that Russian agents were looking for two "escaped German scientists."

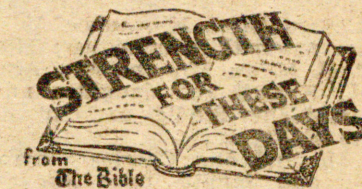

Could they, he asked, be you? It could, they conceded. So, without going back to their hotel, they headed directly for the airport and were whisked out of Germany and back to the United States.

Their report was the most comprehensive and reliable we had had from back of the Iron Curtain. It included a statement that, even then, Russia had jet planes that were much faster than ours. I mentioned this in a news letter to business friends in 1948. They scoffed at the idea. It was absurd, they argued, to believe that a nation dominated by Communists could match the unfettered genius of scientists under our democratic, free enterprise system.

And so the report went unheeded. The two scientists went back to work for the U.S. aviation firm. Then, three years later, Chinese pilots in Russian MiGs demonstrated in Korea that Russia did have faster jets than we.

Later, President Truman announced that it would take Russia two years to perfect an atomic bomb, but a few weeks later Russia exploded one. Now comes the 5000 mile Inter-Continental Ballistic Missile followed by Sputnik. It does not pay to underestimate one's enemy.

Now that we have been shaken out of some of our complacency, isn't it time for a crash program in an effort to catch up?

I have set the Lord always before me; because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.—(Psalm 16, 8.)

God is always with us, His children. But our willfulness, our selfishness, our stubborn clinging to unworthy thoughts and habits, keep us from knowing His love, in which we will find the strength to surmount all life's trials.

Argonne Staff Member To Give Talk On Stars

Dr. John R. Huizenga, Argonne National Laboratory, will speak on the subject, "The Synthesis of the Elements in the Stars", at the December meeting of the Joliet Section of the American Chemical Society, Thursday, Dec. 5 at 8 p. m. College of St. Francis, Wilcox and Taylor sts., Joliet. Guests are welcome.

Prior to the meeting, a dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. Little Jack's restaurant, Plainfield reservations may contact O. C. Dr. Joliet. Those desiring dinner Maloney at Joliet 7-1711, extension 4113.

Dr. Huizenga graduated from Calvin college, Grand Rapids, with an A. B. degree in January 1944. Following his graduation, he spent two years working on an atomic energy project at Oak Ridge, Tenn. Dr. Huizenga then resumed his studies at the University of Illinois where he received his Ph. D. in 1949. During the academic year 1954-55, Dr. Huizenga was a Fulbright Scholar in the Netherlands. He is a member of the American Physical Society and the American Chemical Society. His publications include 45 papers.

Dr. Huizenga will state that one of the most fruitful attacks on the problem of the synthesis of the elements is the study of the relative abundance of the various elements in the universe. From a knowledge of the present abundances of the elements, one can obtain clues to the history of our solar system, stars and the galaxies, for the elemental abundances are a product of cosmic events, he says.

Chicago Dolton Join Battle On Zoning Case

(CNS)—City of Chicago and village of Dolton will battle each other in court Dec. 10 before Circuit Judge John T. Dempsey.

The village will be supported by eight of its residents who joined in a suit seeking to restrain Chicago from issuing Victor Chemical Works a building permit for a chemical plant on a 72 acre tract touching the Dolton border.

Chicago has filed a motion to dismiss the suit. So have the Victor company and the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad which has been authorized by the Illinois Commerce Commission to sell 34.8 acres of the site to Victor for $296,301.50.

These motions will be heard first by Judge Dempsey.

Rothe Weigel, president of Victor, said the company selected the site because of its proximity to the area's waterway system and to the Calumet expressway. The tract is between the Calumet River and 138th street, east of the Chicago & Western Indiana railroad tracks.

Chicago has rezoned it from manufacturing to heavy industry. Dolton wants this nullified.

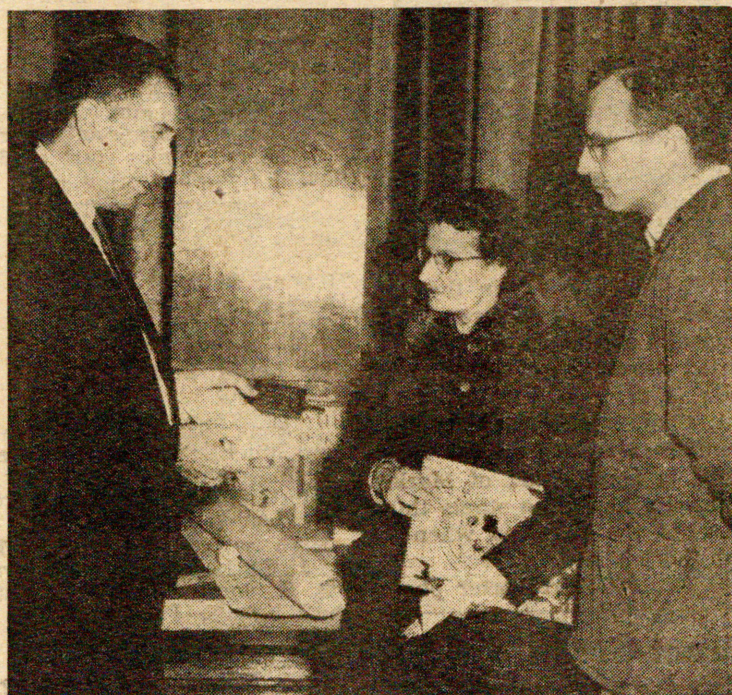

On the Dolton side, property is zoned for two family residences.

Knights Face Ev. Pk. Tonight In League Tilt

By FRED KIESLAR

The Lincoln-Way Knights successfully opened their basketball season Nov. 19 with a double victory over the Plainfield Wildcats. The varsity won by a 10 point margin, Lincoln-Way 46, Plainfield 36.

The Knights made six buckets and two of four attempted free throws in the first quarter. Plainfield made only three and no free throws in this frame to come out trailing L-W by eight points with the score at 14-6 as the horn sounded to end the period.

The second quarter brought the Knights four buckets and three of four free throws to give them 25 points at the half. The Wildcats scored on four buckets and one of two attempted free shots. Plainfield came out of the hal trailing the Knights by 10 points, with the scoreboard reading—Lincoln-Way 25, Plainfield 15.

The Wildcats, putting up a big fight for points in the third frame, outscored Lincoln-Way 10-9 on five field goals, L-W getting four and one free throw. The score stood at 35-24, L-W, at the close of the frame.

The Knights took the driver's seat again in the fourth period and outscored the Wildcats by one point. The Wildcats scored on five field goals and one of four attempted free throws. L-W also hit five field goals, but they made two of four free shots good to score 12 points to Plainfield's 11 for the period.

Hank Jessen was high scorer for Lincoln-Way with 16 points, with Ron Fredin next with 10. George Chwasz took top honors for Plainfield with 12 points.

Frosh-Soph Win

The frosh-soph squad also took their game from Plainfield, 43 to 23. The score at the half showed the Knights out in front by only six points, but L-W, after a stirring pep talk by Coach Buckowich, came out of the third frame with a 20 point lead, scoring 21 points to the Wildcats' 7 for this period, all of which were free throws scored by Plainfields Bruce Gruben.

In the last quarter, both teams netted four buckets to leave the Knights their 20 point lead.

High-point man for Lincoln-Way, with 14 points, was Tom Peterson. Bruce Gruben was high for Plainfield with 10. 7 of which were the free throws mentioned above.

The Knights traveled to Peotone Nov. 22 with high hopes of taking a double-header from the Blue Devils to make their pre-conference record one of wins.

The varsity put up a good fight, but was defeated, 53-45. A summary of Lincoln-Way's scoring against the Blue Devils shows that the Knights scored six points in the first period on two field goal and two free throws; 12 points in the second frame on five field goals and two free throws; 12 points in the third period, and again on five field throws and two charity tosses.

Peotone's scoring summary—Five field goals and one free throw for 11 points in the first frame; five field goals and four free throws in the second period for 14 points; six field goals and one free throw in the third for 13; and five and five in the fourth frame for 15 points.

Zechlin Injured

In the fourth quarter, Dave Zechlin suffered a broken nose when he and a Peotone player collided while attempting to recover a fumble.

High scorers in this game were Hank Jessen with 17 points for Lincoln-Way, and Vince Toepper, for Peotone, with 18.

The frosh-soph squad realized their hopes of victory and downed the Blue Devils 56-41.

The score at half-time showed the Knights already out front by nine points, but the third quarter widened this margin to 17.

OPERATION VENISON IS SUCCESS—Five men from the area returned last week from Michigan with two deer. They were lucky too in that the day they broke camp and started for home it began to snow and had they not started when they did they might be there yet. The standing nimrods (l to r) are, Louis Stelter, New Lenox; Donald Doctor, Orland; Charles Swanberg, Mokena and Sherril Rahm, Frankfort. The gentlemen seated, who is hanging on to the deer hoofs and a rifle, is Loren Sass, of Marley. His eyes are closed but he's not asleep. He hopes the others think he is and will go ahead and dress out the meat so when he opens his eyes it will be to see that the job is done.

In the fourth quarter the Blue Devils outscored the Knights 14 to 12, but this still left the considerable winning margin of 15 points.

High scorers for Lincoln-Way were Tom Peterson with 25 points, and Jerry Haehnlein with 10. For Peotone, Gallagher and Wilke took the honors with 13 and 11 respectively.

Tonight, Nov. 27, the Knights open their conference season against the Evergreen Park Mustangs, played at Lincoln-Way. All of the frosh-soph games played at home start at 6:45 with the varsity game following it at approximately 8:00. L-W and its Knights have opened what appears to be a promising season, so why not follow the Knights!

In September the government's cost of living index rose for the 13th consecutive month, and was 3.4 per cent above the level of a year earlier. There were declines in food prices, but these were more than offset by increases in the cost of housing, clothing and other commodities and services.

Bremen Varsity Beats Argo 42-36 - Frosh-Sophs Win

The Bremen Braves played host to Argo last Friday night, the varsity winning 42-36, while the frosh-soph toppled their opponents, 40-28.

In this opening season game, played before a capacity house, the varsity team played on even terms thruout the contest. Argo held a 9-6 lead at the quarter, but Bremen forged ahead at the half, 15-12.

Date Hartwig, a co-captain with Jerry O'Neill of the Braves scored two successive baskets in the third period to stretch their lead to 19-14. At the end of the third quarter, Bremen held a 26-22 advantage.

Argo rallied in the final quarter, but Luke Smith, Bremen center, found the loop for nine points to give coach Brown's Braves a win to start the season.

The frosh-soph led by Randle and Milfin coined out a neat 40-28 victory. Freshmen J. Man-eonni and J. Ragsdale, playing their first high school game, no doubt gave coach Zuegg reason to feel confident his team will be hard to beat. Randle scored 16 points and Milfin tallied 14.

Bremen and Sandburg face each other tonight, Wednesday, at Carl Sandburg.

Electric Wheel Balancing

Champion Mokena Five Opens Season With 37-25 Win Over N. L.

The DesPlaines Valley conference pried the lid off the 1957-58 season last week-end when the defending heavyweight champs, Mokena's Meteors defeated New Lenox 37 to 25. New Lenox's lights trounced Mokena in the first game of the evening 35 to 8.

The heavyweight game was fiercely contested between the two teams that hope to share in the Championship come next March. Both teams played well for so early in the season. Mokena jumped off to a 4 to 0 lead on baskets by Yunker and Muehler but a basket by Summers, and a basket and two free throws by Jessen put New Lenox ahead at the first quarter.

The scoring picked up in the second period but unfortunately for New Lenox, Mokena did most of it. Johnson hit two long one-handers in a row. Yunker pushed in a rebound and Muehler broke down the lane for three buckets that split the defense wide open. He also added a free throw that sent the Meteors to the dressing room with a half-time advantage of 19 to 12.

Muehler Has Good Night

New Lenox was able to pair the Mokena lead by one point in the third quarter when Summers got two baskets and a free throw, and Pessen and Fredin each brought home two points. The Meteors stayed in front, however, with two baskets each by Williams and Johnson. The score at the end of the third period was 27 to 21.

The Meteors eased the pressure when the fourth quarter began as Muehler repeatedly split the defense to drive in for short shots. His play was in a large measure responsible for the Mokena victory. His passing set up the play and his 15 points was high for the game. Good balance was provided as Johnson and Yunker got eight apiece and Williams scored six. The rebounding of Yunker kept Mokena in possession of the boards and defensively he blocked many shots.

Meteorites Fall

In the first game the Meteorites never got started. New Lenox took an 8 to 0 lead at the quarter and increased the advantage to 13 to 2 at halftime. The only scoring for Mokena was on two free throws by Smith. New Lenox was paced by Wennlund with three baskets.

Mokena spurted for three baskets at the start of the third quarter to narrow the margin but the roof fell in and New Lenox scored 22 points at the end of the third period and the entire fourth quarter without a return from the Meteorites.

Wennlund was high scorer for the game with 13 points. This was the worst defeat for a Mokena Lightweight team in conference play in five years.

The next game for Mokena will be at Laraway Tuesday, Dec. 3 at 7:00.

Winter Time Is Quiet Time In Woodlands

By ROBERTS MANN
(Conservation Editor)

In winter, our woodlands and prairies give an altogether different impression from other seasons. Their mood is one of quiet waiting and sleep.

Now is the time to plan a school trip into the out-of-doors to see how wild living things spend the cold months. Whether it is only a hike to some nearby park, meadow or vacant lot for an hour, or whether you take a bus and spend the day in some forest preserve, a little planning and preparation will make your trip a success regardless of the weather. Be sure to wear warm clothing and shoes or galoshes that will keep your feet dry and comfortable. Take along a few wide-mouthed jars, baskets, plastic bags and cardboard boxes in which to carry collections back to school for later study. The secret of winter comfort in the open is to keep moving.

In winter, abandoned birds' nests are easy to find in leafless trees, shrubs, vines and weed patches. They should be carefully removed, sometimes with the twig or weed supporting them, and carried back to school in a box or basket. There they can be sprayed with liquid plastic so they can be handled without shattering. The nests of each kind of bird can be recognized from the nest materials and style of building by using a mimeographed key obtainable for five cents from Morton Arboretum, Lisle, Ill.

Many Birds Stay On
A few of the most commonly seen native birds that spend the winter in the Chicago region are the crow, blue jay, cardinal, junco, titmouse, nuthatch, chickadee and the downy, hairy and red-bellied woodpeckers. Keep a list of the kinds and approximate numbers of these, and any others, seen on your trip. In

Attorney Infers Steger Officials Are In Need Of Seeing Eye Dog

(CNS)—A Chicago loop attorney has sued to reopen a case in which his seven lots in Steger were condemned in 1955 without his knowledge along with other surrounding property to improve the village's sewage disposal plant.

He is Victor G. Nardi who has maintained his law office at 111 W. Washington street for more than 20 years.

His petition filed in County court charged that Steger officials should have done a better job of trying to locate him.

Records in the condemnation action, filed in 1954, show that Steger officials noted in 1954 and in 1955 that Nardi couldn't be found after "due and diligent inquiry."

A judgment entered in 1955 valued his lots at $150 total. They were lots 3 thru 8 and lot No. 10 on the east side of Lewis avenue, south of 30th st. Nardi's petition to reopen the case charged.

Listed in Phone Book

"The village of Steger and its agents, attorneys or other representatives could have ascertained the residence and business address of petitioner at any time before or after the filing of the petition for condemnation by looking in the telephone directory of the City of Chicago which is certainly the least that could be done to constitute 'due and diligent inquiry' if they desired petitioner to have any notice of the proceedings."

Ross E. Millet, acting Cook county judge, allowed the petition to stand, gave the village 20 days to answer and set hearing for April 28, 1958.

Nardi said his name and address have been listed in the Chicago telephone directory for more than 30 years.

The final order he wants reopened is the one in which Judge Millet authorized Steger to acquire thru condemnation the land in the two blocks between 30th and 32nd streets, Lewis on the west, and Lovetown on the east.

The condemnation action said Steger needed the property for construction of an addition to the sewage disposal plant and the filter bed.

suburban Cook county and the less crowded parts of the city, some or all of these birds can often be attracted to homes or school grounds by feeding in winter. Suet, dripping, peanut butter, sunflower seed, cracked corn and nuts are best.

Bring back a collection of wild seeds, burs and berries. Try to learn which kinds are eaten by birds and which are not. Plant a few kinds in pots to see what comes up.

A rotten log offers food and shelter to an abundance of life, both plant and animal, for years and years before finally returning to the forest soil. Each year some tenants move out and some move in: beetles, ants, flies, bees, spiders, sowbugs, centipedes, millipedes, slugs, snails, earthworms, salamanders, mice, shrews, molds, mushrooms, fungi—and often several kinds of each. Find a rotten stump or log and tear it apart, piece by piece, to see how many kinds of these you can recognize. Take a chunk of this rotten wood back to school to see what crawls out when it warms up.

Life Goes On

Mosses and lichens thrive during the cold months while other plants are dormant. A moss garden can be made by covering the bottom of a shallow dish or pie tin with pieces of the different sorts, then keeping it moist. A simple way to start a sealed terrarium is merely to put a quart of rich damp soil in a clean wide-mouthed gallon jar, screw the lid on tight and set it near a window. That's all. So dormant seeds already in the soil will sprout and grow into a miniature enclosed world with its own weather and cycle of life.

Half fill another such gallon jar with pond water and drop into it a handful of sunken leaves, twigs or water weeds from the pond. Let it stand uncovered. Within a few days it will teem with tiny crawling, swimming, skipping animals. Watch them with a reading glass or hand lens.

Imagine you were in there with them.

The Cook County Health Improvement Association is making plans for its annual enrollment period, Jan. 6-20. George DeVries, Evergreen Park, has committees making plans for this event. The association has provided two nursing scholarships for outstanding rural girls. Carol Siemsen, Tinley Park, is the recipient of a scholarship and is now enrolled in nurses training.

I met with the 4-H advisory committee in Park Forest last week. There are five clubs organized with about 65 youngsters enrolled. Other clubs are in the process of organizing. There are several new 4-H projects which adapt well to suburban areas. I feel sure they will be very purposeful activities for suburban youngsters.

Stop rabbits before they permanently damage small ornamental plants by using repellents.

I mentioned a few repellents in a previous column. Here are two more which you can mix yourself. Black Leaf 40 repellent, mix 2 pints of asphalt water emulsion, three pints of water and eight tablespoons of a household detergent until smooth. Then add 1/2 pint of Black Leaf 40 and mix thoroly.

A fungicide repellent can be made by adding 1/2 pound of Arasan SF-X or Terasan 75 in one quart of asphalt water emulsion and one quart of water.

These mixtures make a paste that you can apply to the trunk and branches with a paint brush. Paint well above the normal high snow line to prevent injury after a heavy snowfall.

This is a good time to review farm drainage needs. Heavy rains, during the spring, summer and fall of this year, mark drainage needs not seen during recent dry years. Evidence of crop loss due to drainage is a good guide for starting to make long-time drainage plans.

If a dairy cow is to be a money-maker, the milk she produces must be worth twice as much as her feed costs. Holstein cows receiving average care must produce about 7,000 pounds of milk a year to show a profit. Cows of the higher testing breeds must make at least 5,000 pounds yearly.

Milk is the best feed for young dairy calves. But giving them too much can cause serious digestive disturbances that may be fatal. One pound of milk daily for every 10 pounds of body weight is about right.

When, where and how do accidents happen? They occur all through the year—about the same number each month. Wednesday and Saturdays are the most hazardous days of the week, and from 2 to 4 p.m. is the most dangerous part of the day. Most farm accidents occur in fields, farmyard and barns. Farm machinery is involved in 40 per cent of the accidents. Tricycle tractors are about twice as dangerous as the four-wheel type. Animal chores, construction and repairs are the jobs that farmers are most often doing when accidents occur.

Do not use DDT or toxaphene insecticides on feeder cattle within 30 days of marketing. Residues can be stored in the fat.

Mrs. Alma Kohl opened her home to the regular meeting of the Marley Missionary society last Wednesday. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Alma Brown, Mrs. Mary Marshall and Mrs. Ave Cleveland. An inspirational program was presented by Mrs. Robert Sproat. The president, Mrs. James Tilsy presided. The annual election of officers was held as follows: President, Mrs. Francis Nelson; vice pres., Mrs. James Tilsy; sec., Mrs. Roy Walker and treasurer, Miss Caroline Tilsy.

The Freeman Fellowship will meet Sunday night, Dec. 1 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nelson.

Mrs. Adella Sproat was a guest Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Rowley, in Homer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Peterson and children Laura Sue and Tommy and Mrs. Dale Peterson of Melrose Park were guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Sass.

Mrs. Robert Sproat and children Laurel and David spent Sunday afternoon in the H. C. Graening home in Joliet.

Mrs. Charles Sievert, Mrs. Victor Zaloudek, Mrs. Charles Dale, Mrs. Don Reid and son Steven and Mrs. James Walsh and children Scott and Robin were guests at a breakfast Tuesday morning in the Carl Wegner home at Spencer.

The Marley BYF will entertain the Intermediate group of the church at a Chili supper this Read 11 Timothy 1:1-7.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.
(Psalm 103:2.)

Harold W. Ruopp describes an occasion when he telephoned to know if he could speak to the city editor of a large metropolitan newspaper. The editor's secretary replied somewhat abruptly, "I doubt it he's very busy."

"I'm sorry. I simply wanted to thank him for his splendid editorial yesterday."

"Oh," she said, "just a minute—I'll see if I can get him." The editor was soon talking. After receiving Dr. Ruopp's thanks for the editorial, the editor took fifteen minutes of his busy time telling about the tribulations of a city editor.

When the phone conversation was over, Dr. Ruopp said half-aloud, "That magic word, 'thank.'"

If a city editor of a large metropolitan newspaper would give the above response, on being thanked, how must God respond when we thank Him for our many blessings?

God showers upon us a multitude of blessings every day. We can complain, we can take them for granted, or we can be thankful for them.

PRAYER

During this season of expressing gratitude to Thee, O God, we pray that thanksgiving will continue to be a part of our daily life. Help us to be more thankful to Thee for all Thy benefits to us. In our Saviour's name. Amen.

READING THE BIBLE

In 1943, a lonely Marine on Guadalcanal wrote his mother a letter, asking that the family join him in reading identical verses from the Bible. The idea was soon picked up by thousands of servicemen stationed in many parts of the world. Today, it has become an annual international program which unites the people of some 50 countries in reading the Bible together, between Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. It is sponsored by the American Bible Society, a voluntary non-profit organization, whose single purpose is the widest distribution of the Scriptures.

Motor Club Resumes Winter Road Reports

Chicago became a "clearing house" for road condition reports last week when the Chicago Motor club renewed its winter service on Nov. 18. Highway hazards created by weather conditions and the return of normal road conditions are reported immediately by the club's 56 branches. When weather conditions demand, a daily telephone conference circuit is set up between the headquarters and the downstate offices. To the uninitiated the jargon traveling back and forth on the wires has little meaning. Typical are such reports as: "Light snow; traffic advised move caution; crews working," "30, 24, 27 hazardous; 41 slippery but open," or from another downstate office: "Temperature 36; misting; all roads open." Starting Dec. 2 this data will be sent via "open-wire teletype" machines to nearby regional "clearing houses" in St. Louis, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Omaha and Minneapolis. These link with others north, east and west providing a network checking on road conditions over most of the United States. The wire services are supplemented by daily mimeographed reports exchanged between the "clearing houses" and also sent to the club's branch offices in Illinois and Indiana.

SQUAT, WHAT?

You'll tie your back in a painful knot. If you lift with a stoop instead of a squat!

In the latter part of October, the U.S. Public Health Service estimated that 2½ million Americans had contracted Asian flu. The situation was improving in the south, and worsening in the north.

No Such Thing As "Little Aid" Program - Scott

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
Exec. Sec'y Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Those who would ask for just a little government aid, for only a little while, to get them over the hump, should pause and study other "little" government programs presently in being.

The manner in which small government programs become huge spending monsters is illustrated by the brief history of the President's committee on education beyond high school. Two years ago this group was granted an initial $150,000 appropriation and was to make a report of its findings by Dec. 31, 1957.

However, in the 1957-58 budget there are two small items that have received little, if any, attention at all. One of these is a $200,000 appropriation to enable the committee to complete its reports. Another seeks $250 million for grants and subsidies. Thus, in 24 months a $150,000 study group has mushroomed into a rapidly growing program to put

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

"A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH 2 IN THE BUSH"

THAT'S AN ANCIENT ADAGE OF CAUTION—WHICH AMERICANS HAVE NEVER WHOLLY ACCEPTED. OUR DEMOCRACY HAS EXPANDED AND FLOURISHED BECAUSE OUR PEOPLE, NEVER CONTENT WITH THE SMALL SECURITY OF A "BIRD IN HAND", HAVE ALWAYS BELIEVED THAT THERE WERE PLENTY OF BIGGER AND BETTER BIRDS IN THE BUSH FOR THOSE WHO WENT AFTER THEM.

THIS READINESS TO TAKE A CHANCE HAS BEEN THE BASIS OF OUR GROWTH. AND THE RESOURCES THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE BUILT UP THROUGH HARD WORK AND THRIFT, INCLUDING THEIR SAVINGS AND LIFE INSURANCE, HAVE GIVEN THEM THE COURAGE TO TAKE CHANCES—SEEKING THE BIGGER AND BETTER BIRDS IN THE BUSH.

into effect recommendations field. that have yet to be made.

Another program, social security, was conceived in 1935 for a worthy purpose—to put a floor of protection under those who because of age were no longer able to support themselves by working. But now social security may be required to move into a highly expensive

Under a bill now before congress social security would pay hospital, surgical and medical expenses for those getting social security benefits or entitled to them. This includes some 12 million persons now and the number is growing.

The route that follows will be opened up; pressure to force into the plan hospitals which do not enter voluntarily; rising hospital costs to those under 65; demands that the age limit for government-financed treatment be lowered, etc.

These examples are food for thought and reflection. No matter how small a project is when it starts, no matter how temporary it is supposed to be, the result will be permanent, with the birth of a gigantic spending program that will cause the taxpayer to dig deeper for years to come.

Half a century ago most people believed that nothing could be done about tuberculosis. The Christmas Seal Sale carries a message of hope that TB can be prevented and cured.

Last year there were 5,644 newly reported cases of tuberculosis in Chicago and 303 newly reported cases in suburban Cook County.

THE NEW PILGRIMS

They sailed to their strange destination in creaking wooden ships. We came in metal moving vans, powerful and swift.

They arrived on a rocky shore to find loneliness and hardship. We arrived in a muddy flat land, desolate—without tree and without blossom.

They huddled together and shared in all labors and chores for the betterment of their small group. We are gaining momentum in our unified work, determined to sustain our own.

We are the new pilgrims. Of course, a few of the physical errors have been removed in these 300 years. No savages to defy us. No lack of medical aids. No endless hand working of every tool and every need.

But it does not take more than a quick thought to grasp the similarities. Here we are. We carry on the American dream of independence and dignity. We plunge our lives, our families, and our fortunes into this endless dream. We bring our meager possessions and our young children to a barren plain. We chose to exist in a community of isolated houses—with no commerce, no professions near at hand, and few conveniences.

What we have is what we brought. What we shall have is what we shall build from this year forward.

These thoughts are thrilling thoughts. They may frighten some—and yet they, too, came. We all made the pilgrimage and had a free choice.

This Thanksgiving Day I thank our Lord for wide land and open sky around me. I thank Him for air and sun for my children at last. I thank Him for the mystery and excitement of our future in this new land. I thank Him for homes that are modest but so very comfortable. This day I thank Him for a future so promising and free.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY

Ah. Two days—or four days! —to eat turkey and cranberries and pumpkin pie and corn. Happy Feasting!

Thursday, Thanksgiving.

THANKSGIVING WORSHIP SERVICE

Special Thanksgiving service in school No. 3, Thomas Lane. At 9:30 a.m. Rev. J. J. VanBoskirk. Hymns, united prayers, and sermon. All religious backgrounds invited to share in this first day of Thanksgiving prayer.

Wednesday, Dec. 4
MOTHERS CLUB OF SCHOOL

Christmas meeting to complete plans for social dinner, gifts for teaching staff, and major gifts to school with funds raised during the October Smorgasbord. All newcomers invited to join plans for the social restaurant dinner.

Soon
NEW TEEN-AGERS CLUB

Have already had one "Record Hop" in the Main School, 184th & Central, (everyone bringing their own favorite records to dance to.) Planning to meet within next two weeks to elect officers, set meeting dates, and plan activities such as hayrides, skating parties, etc. For information, call John Kovach, SY 9-5917.

LOST A FORTUNE?

I received a call from a person, who wished to remain anonymous, that an unspecified sum of money had been found by his daughter. Anyone who wishes to claim his lost money may call SY 9-5399 and describe the location and amount, etc. Good fortune hunting.

WHAT IS THE CITIZENS COMMITTEE?

Having attended two of their monthly meetings—and being now a member with paid dues of 50c—I wish to announce: The Citizens committee is a group of people, men and women, young and old, inside our development boundaries and outside (within school district 160)—people who WORK!

They have struggled bravely and accomplished wonders during this past year when there was no sign of a government or elaborate social plan for getting anything done out here. They have exchanged ideas, realized plans, raised funds for school needs, and served as a sounding board for the entire surrounding communities questions and concerns.

Any and all may come to their open meetings, listen, speak, and join. After very productive business meetings, they have a coffee and dessert period before going home.

Their latest accomplishment was the tremendously successful Hard Times dance—with an income of $938.50 from prize tickets and dance tickets. (Expenses will be deducted from this amount before it is turned over to the school board for use by our school.)

Their next contribution to our common happiness will be

A Night With Santa Claus

Yes, they are now planning to have Santa Claus station himself for one evening in the main school building and listen to every child's list of wishes and give small treats to each and every one. There will be more publicity about this later.

They have sponsored and originated: Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts (in the process of forming now), PTA inquiries, the brand-new Teen-Agers club. They have given manpower to help maintain the school grounds and raise funds to aid the growing school system.

Officers of this hardworking group are: President, Bill Marguadsen; vice president, Larry Simon; secretary, Bill Picke; treasurer, Harold Blackwell; sergeant at arms, Robert Otto.

If you have curiosity about your community's countless problems, and wish to offer suggestions at arms, Robert Otto, meeting of the Citizens committee held every third Monday in the main school, 184th and Central, at 8 pm.

GOODBY, MRS. CHIPS

Two of our grade school teachers are leaving us, for different reasons. The first-grade teacher, Mrs. Woodstrup, will soon be leaving to have her third child. (She now has two sons.)

Mrs. Ethel Underwood became ill a few weeks ago and had an emergency trip to a hospital. Later she had to call the principal, Mr. Tobin, and tell him her doctor advised her to remain away from work for several months for complete recovery. Everyone wishing to send her greeting cards may mail them to this address: 11021 South Artesian ave., Chicago 43, Ill.

FAMILY WORSHIP SERVICES

Last week the Country Club Hills Christian church conducted three separate meetings in private homes of residents here. Two of the meetings were in the form of coffee and question-hour fellowship. These were held in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacKenzie and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Olson.

One was a brief family service especially for very young children and mothers at 5 pm. Stories and hymns for young children were shared in the living room of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson.

If you, or any of your friends would like to discuss such a gathering of families in your own home, you may write to the Rev. J. J. VanBoskirk, Chicago Disciples Union, 19 South LaSalle, Chicago 3.

Hold Food Tests At Oak Forest

A test of all canned foods used in all Cook county institutions for the coming quarter was held Friday, Nov. 22, at the Oak Forest hospital.

This is the first time the quarterly food test has been conducted at Oak Forest, the Cook county hospital devoted to the chronically ill. They have previously been held at the county hospital on Chicago's west side.

Conducting the quarterly food test at Oak Forest permits another segment of county employees an opportunity to see the techniques involved in procuring the best food possible for county institutions, according to Dorothy Boland, purchasing agent for all Cook county institutions.

Assisting her were Enid Miner, chief dietitian Oak Forest hospital; Mildred Kalsem, chief dietitian Cook county hospital; and Mary Louise Slack, chief dietitian county juvenile home, in addition to Andy Petersen, assistant purchasing agent for all county institutions.

According to Carl K. Schmidt Jr., superintendent of Oak Forest hospital, the labels were removed from the cans, and numbers were assigned designating the packers bidding for the county order. The diet experts tested hundreds of products from sauer kraut to peaches, listing their recommendations. Upon the basis of their recommendations Miss Boland will make up

LAUNCH FUND DRIVE FOR CHURCH ADDITION—Members of St. John's church of Mokena attended a kick-off dinner Monday night prior to beginning a campaign to finance construction of an addition to the church to meet the needs of the steadily growing Sunday school and other activities. Left to right are, Lloyd Leyerle, vice president of the church board,

Mrs. Grace Alexander, dinner chairman, George H. Bills, chairman of the finance committee holding an architect's drawing of the building, Roy Kropp, chairman of the building committee, Dr. Karl H. Meyer, Chicago, speaker at the dinner and the Rev. William J. Rieman, pastor. (Robert Porter photo)

OPEN FUND DRIVE—

Thanksgiving was an appropriate time for such a canvass to be made.

The person solicited will be asked to indicate on a pledge card the amount he will pay each week for the next three years for the new addition and the current expenses of the church.

Pledges will be accepted as a statement of intention, and should misfortune befall the pledger so that continuation of the payments would become an undue hardship, the pledge may be decreased or discontinued thru notification of the church treasurer. Persons whose financial condition may improve, may increase their pledges so the project should prosper, it was pointed out.

In keeping with traditions of St. John's Thanksgiving services will be held Wednesday night, Nov. 27, at 7:30 o'clock in the church proper.

Death Takes Anna Wanner, 91

Mrs. Anna Wanner, 91, a pioneer resident of the area, died Sunday, Nov. 24, in the Lakeview nursing home, Manteno, following a lingering illness.

She was born Oct. 23, 1866 in Germany and came to America with her parents at the age of 15. The family settled on a farm in the vicinity of Green Garden.

In 1888 she married John Wanner. In 1918 they moved to Peotone, where they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1938.

Funeral services were held in the Evangelical and U. B. church Peotone. The Rev. Roy Meier officiated. Burial was in Green View cemetery, Green Garden.

Mrs. Wanner is survived by four of her eight children. Her husband, John, died in 1945. Also preceding her in death are three daughters, Mrs. Anna Off-ner, Mrs. Rose Bettenhausen and Mrs. Verena Nagel. Another daughter died in infancy.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lydia Bettenhausen, Mokena, and Mrs. Henry Tewes, of Green Garden; and two sons, William and Alvin, both of Peotone. There are 18 grandchildren and 30 great grandchildren also surviving, besides three sisters, Mrs. Mary Subbert, Green Garden; Mrs. Minnie Hohman, of Joliet; and Mrs. Ida Hasenjaeger, of Green Garden. Also two brothers, Jacob Krapf, of Zion, and Charles of Green Garden.

Invite Officials to Attend Opening of Joliet Sewage Plant

Officials of surrounding communities, including those of Mokena, Frankfort, New Lenox, Orland Park and Tinley Park, have been given special invitations to the official opening of the Joliet sewage disposal plant that is to take place Dec. 7.

The plant, which is located on McKinley ave., near where Hickory creek enters the Illinois waterway, cost approximately $2,000,000 and rated as one of the most modern plants in existence today.

There will be guided tours thru the plant so visitors may observe the various operations. The ceremonies attendant upon the opening of the plant are scheduled for 11 o'clock.

which has title to the Mineral Springs development.

It has been indicated that the village is prepared to pay approximately $3,300 to satisfy all of the existing claims but it is reported that a couple of the people involved want more.

The village would like to dispose of these claims as quickly as possible so that the bonds can be sold and work begun on the Sewer system and sewage disposal plant.

Should the program fall thru, the village would lose a federal grant of some $69,000 and new bids might run higher than those now on file, it was said.

John F. McMahon, Father of Mokena Woman, Dies

John F. McMahon, 68, late of 1 So. Cagwin ave., Joliet, father of Mrs. Richard Muehler of Mokena, died in his home last Saturday following a lingering illness.

Surviving beside Mrs. Muehler is his wife, Frances; two other daughters Mrs. F. B. Lauffer, and Mrs. H. F. Weiss, Joliet; four sisters and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in St. Patrick's church, Joliet with burial being made in Sacred Heart cemetery, Campus, Ill.

Frankfort Girl In Piano Recital Held at Chicago

Miss Leona Guzik, daughter of Mrs. Rudolph Guzik, of Frankfort was one of 200 who took part in a piano recital last Saturday evening, as pupils of E. V. Eggert. She played "The Wedding of the Painted Doll."

The recital was held in the Eighth Street theatre at Chicago and was well attended. Everyone present was loud in their

Rev. A. W. Gode Accepts Call To Lusk, Wyo.

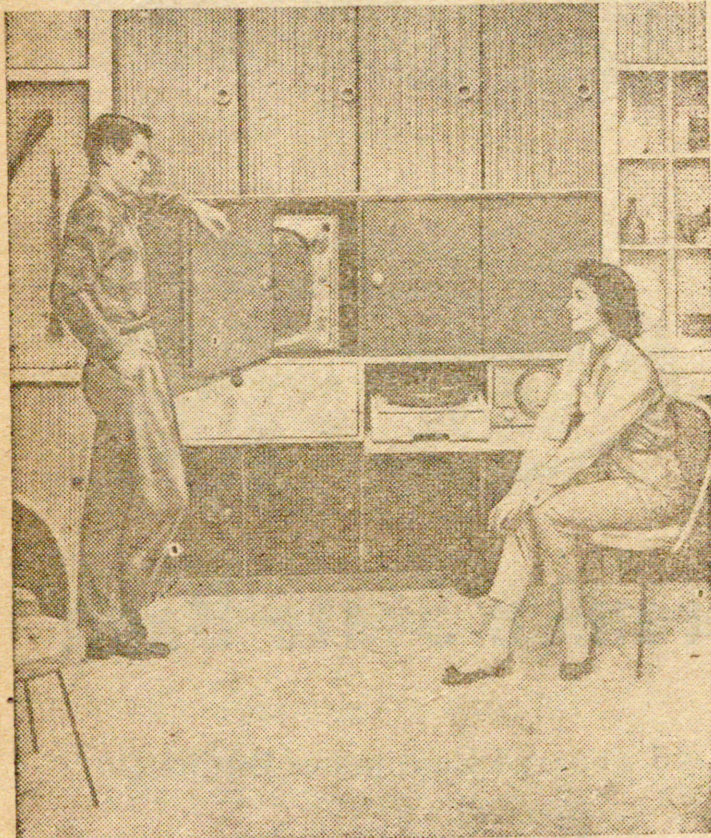

The Rev. A. W. Gode, who has been pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church at Mokena for the past 14½ years has accepted a call to the St. Paul's Lutheran church at Lusk, Wyoming.

The Rev. Mr. Gode stated the call was entirely unexpected and after a month's deliberation the local church board granted him a peaceful release from his Mokena church duties at their meeting last Monday evening. The board regrets the move but wish their pastor and family happiness and success in their new location. The Rev. Mr. Gode has been in the ministry over 35 years.

In speaking of his new location the Rev. Mr. Gode said Lusk, is on route 20 about 30 miles west of the Nebraska line. He stated if one would take Lake st., in Chicago they could follow it to Lusk directly. The area is on a plateau of the Rocky mountains and is a cattle and sheep raising country. Lusk has a population of about 2000.

The Mokena congregation will tender a farewell party in honor of their pastor and wife, in the church basement, Sunday evening, Dec. 1 to which everyone in the area is invited. The Gode's will move, via Van Dec. 5.

The Wayside Workers circle of King's Daughters will hold their annual Christmas luncheon in the home of Mrs. R. W. Carlson Thursday, Dec. 5 at noon. There will be an appropriate program following the luncheon and in place of a gift exchange, an offering for the society's Indian work will be taken. The committee on arrangements are Mrs. F. J. Paddock, Mrs. Reed Burch and Mrs. E. A. Cary.

The annual meeting of Homer church will be held Sunday, Dec. 1 at one o'clock. Those who attend church services may bring a sack lunch and coffee will be served. Reports from the heads of all affiliated groups should be presented at this time in written form so that they may be turned over to the clerk, Mrs. Geo. Burcham, following the meeting. Election of officers for the coming year will also take place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ziesemer, who left for Phoenix, Ariz., last Thursday to visit relatives, were in an auto accident Saturday and Mrs. Ziesemer was taken to a Phoenix hospital for treatment.

The Country Charms 4H club held its opening meeting for the season at the Northwest Homer fire barn Wednesday evening. Mrs. Galen Holloway of Lockport twp. will be their leader this year. Election of officers was held with these results: President, Edna Mae Burcham; vice president, Lynda Nelson; secretary, Susanne Burcham; treasurer, Becky White; reporter, Mary Snyder and recreation chairman, Gayle Myers.

Permits have recently been issued to Small Homes Corp. of Joliet to build six houses on 144th and 145th Sts. near Smuth and Rickerman, ranging in price from $7650 to $9650; to Mrs. Cora Nielsen, Rt. 1, Lockport for a house to be built opposite the Forest Preserve at a cost of $5000 and to Barney Welter to move a house and build an addition west of Goodings Grove.

Betty Anderson was one of about 20 pupils from Lockport High school who went to Bloomington via chartered bus last Saturday, where they attended a work shop meeting to gain information on school year books.

Family Dinners

Mr. and Mrs. George Milton entertained at a family dinner Sunday in their home. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Paddock and Jerry, Mrs. F. J. Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford G. Rowley and children, and Mrs. George Milton, Jr. and George III of Plainfield.

On Thanksgiving Day the George Burchams will have as guests Mrs. Edna Mergler, Mrs. Verna Ault of Kansas City, Mrs. James Burcham of Decatur and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Conrad and family of Chicago.

The Ray Carlsons will eat turkey with the Joe Vancells in Downers Grove.

The Elvis Cagwins will entertain their children and grand children.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Burch will eat dinner with her father, George Lynn of Lockport.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Welter will entertain the George Welter families. This will include Mr. and Mrs. Owen Storm, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Anderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Balley and sons, besides Mr. and Mrs. George Welter and the Alvin Welters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Rowley will be Thanksgiving Day guests in the William Rutter home in Lockport. Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. George Rutter of Joliet, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ott and family, Mrs. Marie Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Langlois and children, all of Lockport.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dale will spend the day with their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wegner, at New Lenox.

G. C. Frazer of Farrell road will retire Dec. 1 from work at the Texaco Co. where he has been employed for 29 years.

A group of boys from the Future Farmers of LTHS made a field trip to the Cagwin farm last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Rowley were guests of Mrs. Marie Ott Sunday evening when the family gathered to help Mrs. William Rutter celebrate her birth day.

Irvin Termunde, Robert and Nick Welter and Don Cagwin will show their beef steers at the International Show in Chicago, Nov. 29 through Dec. 7.

The Northwest Homer Fire department Auxiliary will sponsor a roller skating party in the Lockport rink on route 7, Thursday Dec. 5 from 7 to 10 pm. Tickets may be had from Mrs. George Burcham or any Auxiliary member.

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the Homer church will sponsor a variety entertainment in the church Saturday, Dec. 7 at 7:30 pm. Mrs. John Hollister will be the director. The public is invited. Refreshments will be available.

Salvation Army Kettles to Make Debut Friday

The newly-shined Christmas kettles of The Salvation Army—a traditional part of the holiday season—will make their official debut at important street corners in Chicago and suburbs on Friday (Nov. 29).

Attended by bell-ringing Salvationists wearing regulation navy blue uniforms or bright red capes, the little red kettles are The Salvation Army's major appeal to the public for help in providing Christmas happiness for more than 30,000 persons in need in the Greater Chicago area.

The kettles will be on the streets each day thru Christmas Eve. Beginning with a limited number of locations, Salvation Army officials expect to have a maximum of 103 kettles in use as the holiday season advances.

With the coins and dollars dropped into the kettles, the Salvation Army is able to provide Christmas dinners and gifts for underprivileged families; toys for children; parties for children and golden agers; gifts for residents of homes for the aged; patients in military and civilian hospitals, and men and women in prison, and cheer and warmth for people who might otherwise have a bleak and unhappy Christmas. The entire program is an important part of the Army's year-round effort to bring new hope to the distressed, it was pointed out.

At Christmas time last year, at its installations throughout the United States, The Salvation Army provided holiday dinners and other assistance for more than 1,000,000 persons and distributed more than 600,000 toys to needy children.

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

A study of the investment patterns of the large university endowment funds, should be of interest. For many years the idea of large endowment funds placing emphasis on common stock investment placement rather than bonds or real estate mortgages, was simply fantastic and unthinkable. It had been customary to think of common stocks by estates, trust funds, or most funds in any way supervised by courts or other state agencies.

Today many states have removed the legal prohibitions in whole or in part as history has shown that the better grade common stocks are superior to real estate mortgages and bonds in retaining the "purchasing power" value of those estates and trusts etc.

Mr. Boardman Bump, treasurer of Mount Holyoke college and a director of a number of financial institutions, including a large Mutual Fund, compiled a list of 42 universities and their endowment funds.

His study showed that as of June 30, 1957, 31 of these 42, had over 50 percent of their funds in common stocks, 13 of this number had more than 60 per cent so invested. The University of Delaware had 85.5 per cent in common stocks and Wesleyan university 80.7 per cent.

Get Break on Realty

The arithmetic average for investment diversification was bonds (and cash) 30.8 per cent; preferred stocks 4 per cent; common stocks 55.7 per cent; real estate mortgages 8.1 per cent; and 1.4 per cent in other forms of investment.

In analysis of the investment figures, it is apparent that tax laws make it profitable for some of these universities to own real estate since some states give special tax exempt features to their non profit organizations and their real estate holdings. Boston university has 19.6 per cent of its funds in real estate mortgages or ownership of real estate. The University of Chicago has 17.1 per cent so invested; Colby college 23 per cent; Michigan university 12.9 per cent; Mount Holyoke 13.4 per cent; Northwestern university 28.4 per cent; Pomona college 21.4 per cent; Rice Institute 32.6 per cent; Trinity college 12.9 per cent; Vanderbilt university 22.4 per cent; and the University of Wisconsin 16.3 per cent.

Large Common Holdings

Of the above endowment funds with a high percentage in real estate ownership, the holdings of bonds are correspondingly low. Only the University of Michigan had over one third in bonds and Rice Institute with the highest percentage of real estate holdings, had only 1.8 per cent in bonds.

Those endowment funds of over $100 million are limited to eight universities. Their percentages in common stocks are as follows: University of California 44.5 per cent; University of Chicago 52.6 per cent; Cornell university, 50.7 per cent; Harvard university 58.7 per cent; Massachusetts Institute of Technology 54.2 per cent; Northwestern university 41.2 per cent; Rochester university 56.3 per cent; and Yale university 56.4 per cent.

Investors are generally coming to the opinion that a well diversified list of common stocks of the better grade corporations, representing ownership of these firms, are desirable investments since any calamity to even ten per cent of our leading corporations, would be a national calamity as they are the life blood of the country.

Almost half of all persons known to have tuberculosis are not in hospitals.

Irvine To Head Sales For T. E.'s Little Big Inch

Jamie T. Irvine has been named general sales manager for the Little Big Inch Division of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, according to Millard K. Neptune, executive vice-president.

Mr. Irvine has more than 25 years experience in the petroleum marketing and distribution industry and will be in charge of all sales activities of the Little Big Inch Division, Texas Eastern's 1700-mile petroleum products system extending from the Gulf Coast, Mid-Continent area to the Midwestern markets, Mr. Neptune said.

Before coming to Texas Eastern, Mr. Irvine was secretary-treasurer and a director of American Pipe Line Corporation. Prior to that he held various positions in the marketing department of Shell Oil Company as advertising promotion manager and then assistant to the president.

He is a native of Zanesville, Ohio, and received a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University and a Master of Business Administration degree from Harvard University.

Emergencies End But The Tax Lingers On

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
Ex. Sec'y Taxpayers Federation

"Emergency" labels on tax levies often get forgotten, and the taxes linger on long after the conditions which prompted them have ceased to exist, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois stated this week. One serious example is the 3% excise tax on transportation.

First imposed in 1941, the transportation excise tax was a war-time measure to discourage unnecessary travel and shipping when transportation facilities were needed for defense. Its effect today is the opposite, the Federation said. It still discourages travel and shipping by common carriers, but this now undermines the nation's transportation systems and thereby weakens one of our main lines of defense.

The transportation excise tax is also discriminatory. Large shippers who can afford it set up their own transportation systems and thus legally avoid the tax. The little man gets hurt.

Congress Won't Let Go

The transportation excise tax is also burdensome. Transporting persons and property is not a luxury, but a necessity of life. Taxes on such transportation are not paid by the carriers but by those who use transportation. The carriers must collect the tax.

The transportation excise tax is also dangerous. It is a tax which tends to destroy its own base—a questionable fiscal policy—by discouraging the use of public transportation. Efficient, reasonably priced public transportation affects numerous social, economic and governmental problems.

Revenue loss to the government thru repeal of this tax would be less than popularly supposed, the Federation said. The greater net income brought about by its repeal will bring the government increased revenues thru income taxes to partially offset the loss.

More important than revenue is the need for encouraging the development and preservation of a national transportation system adequate to meet the needs of commerce, the postal service and the national defense.

Homewood Gets Grant from U.S. to Finance Planning

(CNS)—A $7,600 grant to help finance a planning guide for Homewood has been given by the state housing board by the Urban Renewal Administration in Washington, D. C.

It will be matched equally by local funds to cover the cost of a year's planning project to guide the growth of Homewood. The Emperor Napoleon is said by historians to have used 54 bottles of cologne on himself and thorefare and community per month—but they don't say why.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Miller, Sr. have returned from a delightful trip to St. Petersburg, Fla.

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Doctor, born Nov. 19 in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet. He weighed nine pounds, five ounces. They have named him Charles William. Mother and son are doing fine, and when they arrived at home two sister were delighted to welcome him.

Mrs. Ray Brennan in company with several ladies, left Monday morning by car for Miami Beach, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Wintering Calves Can be Profitable

A large amount of corn is available at low price for the 1957-58 cattle-feeding season. For that reason cattle feeders might consider feeding more corn than usual to their wintering calves, particularly if they are to be full-fed on grain next summer.

G. R. Carlisle, extension livestock specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says that corn at a dollar a bushel is only a slightly more expensive source of nutrients than corn silage at $8 a ton or alfalfa hay at $20 a ton.

THE FIRST OBLIGATION
In a speech made some time after Russia's first space satellite had started whizzing its way around the earth, the President said that we must not demand federal spending for non-essential purposes "when the costs of defense and of waging peace must be so great."

Putting it bluntly, the first duty of this country is to do everything the national interest and honor permit to prevent war—then, should that effort fail and war come, to win the war. Any other result would mean slavery for the survivors and a new Dark Age in which every ideal of freedom and of the importance of the individual would be destroyed.

Whether or not this means that still vaster sums must be spent for military strength and related matters is still unresolved. There is apparently a belief in high circles that the present defense budget, of some $38 billion a year, is adequate, and that the principle need is to channel funds away from obsolete weapons and activities and into such new fields as missiles and rockets.

Whatever the final decision, one thing can be said with certainty. The demands on the government—which simply means all the people—for defense spending will continue to be enormous. In light of this, it is the obligation of government to pare spending in every area where the national security and the true national interest are not involved. For instance, that means that government should, without waste of time, divorce itself from every and any activity that can be carried on by private enterprise. Getting government out of business not only saves the taxpayers' money—it also brings in tax revenue that government sorely needs.

PEN & BRUSH CLUB

The Pen and Brush club is sponsoring a Christmas decoration contest for Lincoln-Way. Blackboards, bulletin boards, door ways, and windows are areas which are to be decorated and the following prizes are to be awarded: First, $5; second, $3; third, $2 and three honorable mentions, three one-pound boxes of candy. The settings are to be religious, humorous, or based around Santa Claus. The judging will be held on Dec. 10, and Mr. Kenny, sponsor of the Pen and Brush club, Darwin DeCamp, club president, Fred Bishop, chairman of the committee and Mrs. Foster will be the judges.

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

The 126 members of the L-W chapter of the Future Homemakers of America are busy again this year preparing Thanksgiving baskets. These baskets are composed of either food articles or money brought in by members. These baskets are sent to needy families in the four different towns.

At the annual family night potluck, Nov. 25, an emblem service program was given to help the girls' parents better understand the organization.

Some of the girls have also been busy working with state committees and groups. One of the girls is JoAnn Mundt, L-W's project chairman. She is representing Lincoln-Way on a state subcommittee for the division of state awards, how to use rate sheets, and public relations forms. She and Mrs. Johansen have attended two meetings of this committee at Peotone.

LATIN CLUBS

On Tuesday, Nov. 5, Miss Harra's Latin I and II clubs invaded the planetarium, history museum, and the Art Institute. The larger group of students visited the planetarium with Miss Harra, and another group accompanied by Mrs. Spiewak visited the Art Institute. Lunch was eaten at the Art Institute, and in the afternoon the entire group went to the history museum.

The planetarium's show was the Milky Way for this month. At the Art Institute the two major attractions were Picasso's exhibit of painting and sculpture and the Thorne miniature rooms.

F. N. A. RALLY

On Nov. 2 the Future Nurses Associations presidents, Carole Crouse and Barbara Daugherty, along with vice-presidents, Linda Ruhle and Caryle Struthers, attended the annual Future Nurses Rally at Rich township, high school in Park Forest. Although Lincoln-Way has the smallest total enrollment, it reported the largest club membership of all the schools represented.

VISIT JOLIET FEDERAL

On November 7, the office practice class under the direction of Mr. Paul Thomas, took a field trip to the Joliet Federal Savings and Loan Association. Their main objective was to see the different types of filing systems. They saw the visual, rotary, and cabinet type files and how to file alphabetically and numerically. The visual filing system was the newest system used, and it proved to be very interesting.

EXPLAIN CAMPING PLAN

The Journal of Health-Physical Education-Recreation has just published the article, "An Experiment in October Living," written by Miss Barbara Spray-berry of the Lincoln-Way faculty. The article deals with the objectives, various problems and their solutions, and the results of the overnight camping trips planned and conducted by several girls' physical education classes from Lincoln-Way. Also included in the article were several suggestions to other schools about the planning of an effective outdoor living program.

SELL MAGAZINES

Students at Lincoln-Way are busy selling magazines in an all-out campaign to boost class treasuries. Each class will receive money for the amount of magazines it sells. So it's to each class's advantage to sell the most magazines. Freshmen have decided that any class has "rocks in their heads," who thinks they can beat the freshmen. Part of the money raised by the classes will be given to the yearbook and the rest will remain in the class treasuries.

LITTLE BILL says:

6¢ a load
is all you pay—to dry the clean
electric way

An electric dryer will dry this normal 8-lb. load for only 6¢—2 sheets, 3 bath towels, 4 hand towels, 2 men's T-shirts, 3 pillowcases, 3 children's dresses, 2 luncheon cloths. Drying time only 25 to 30 minutes.

Nothing's faster, nothing's cleaner—and electric dryers are completely automatic

COST?

ELECTRIC DRYERS

cost
$30 to $60 less to buy
than any other kind

A new electric dryer will wipe out your wife's weather worries on washday (and costs less to buy than any other kind).

And for just 6¢ a load, electric dryers give you the cleanest way to dry clothes. Clean, dry, radiant electric heat—like the sun—turns out clothes that are soft, sweet-smelling every time.

Fast, too. Today's electric dryers will dry a full load in 25 to 30 minutes. All electric dryers are fully automatic, nothing to light, no igniting devices to require service.

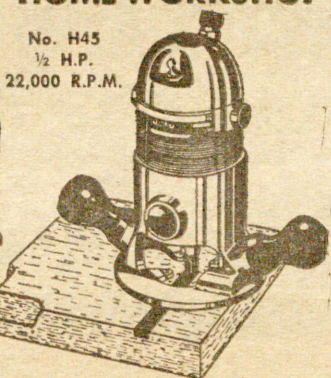

We think you'll be surprised when your appliance dealer tells you how little it costs to own a modern electric dryer.

Traffic School To Give Course On Legal Problems

A class of police officers will study the legal aspects of traffic law enforcement in a short course beginning Monday, Dec. 2, at the Traffic Institute of Northwestern University at Evanston.

Approximately 40 men will attend, representing state and municipal departments in 20 states, Canada, and Korea. The course will last three weeks.

The training will cover the legal duties, rights, and authority of the police in traffic supervision. As in many other Institute courses, the instruction will be aimed at the police management level.

Major topics to be covered are rules of evidence, laws of arrest, and principles of traffic law. Other subjects are: court organization and operation, assisting the prosecution, the police in civil suits, uniform traffic legislation, and constitutional law.

A five-day course in another specialized area of police work, "Chemical Tests for Intoxication," will begin Dec. 9.

Getting Holiday Dinner Big Job At Oak Forest

In order to produce Thanksgiving dinner for the 2600 patients at Oak Forest hospital, Chief Dietitian Enid Miner's staff in bakery and kitchen worked around the clock, Monday through Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving, sandwiching in 9,000 regular daily meals for patients and staff.

A 30-piece orchestra will play in the patients' main dining room and four sets of strolling musicians will make the rounds of the chronic disease and tubercular sections thruout Thanksgiving afternoon—all provided by Carl Baumann, vice president Local 10, American Federation of Musicians, thru the Music Performers trust fund.

This year Tom Turkey, upon delivery was ensconced in recently remodeled refrigerators which help to retain much more food flavor. In addition to improving the exhaust systems in the walk-in-boxes, portable metal shelving has been installed as a time saver; foods are moved directly to the production line eliminating transfer to work carts.

The man responsible for the fruit cake which will be served with the evening meal on Thanksgiving day, is Adolph Jager, who has seen lots of changes during his 32 years with Oak Forest. And his bread actually tastes like the kind grandma used to make, due to the availability of government surplus powdered milk, used in such quantity as to make this bread a very high protein product, excellent for geriatric patients' diets. Jager also supervises the baking of sweet rolls during the wee hours for Monday morning breakfast, and raisin bread is on his schedule every Saturday morning.

Chef Prassa who will preside over the turkey has been with Oak Forest for the past seven years; formerly of Chicago's University club, and such hotels as the LaSalle, Congress, Sherman House, and the Stevens, when it opened in 1926.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTER
Secretary of State

Thanksgiving time is with us again and for many it will mean a trip for the day or weekend to visit the family or friends. Highway traffic, as a result, will be heavy. For this reason, if you plan to make such a trip, make certain that you exercise extra caution when behind a steering wheel.

Many motorists will be in an unnecessary hurry to reach their destination. As a result they will fail to heed the rules of the road.

Such driving tactics will, of course, endanger their lives and the lives of others. Be on the lookout for this type of motorist.

Do your best to allow a motorist in such a "hurry" to pass you. In his haste he is a hazard to your safety. He will not be satisfied until he has passed you and he can "roar" on.

Courtesy and caution should be your bywords at all times when behind a steering wheel. This is especially true when the roads are jammed.

Sputnik 'Beeps' Fail To Shake Men Of Faith

By JOHN P. BRENNAN
Staff Writer
(Paulist Feature Service)

"Beep, beep" used to mean that a youngster wanted to pass you on his bicycle. Today two "beeps" signal that a new satellite is spinning around the earth.

The Soviet launching of two "moons" within short space of one another, and the Russian boast of reaching the moon has many Americans worried.

For many in this country, the new "moons" were like clouds of fear and uncertainty. When Sputnik went up, their hopes went down. The beeps gave many the blues.

For a long time, we have been confident that the technical know-how of our scientists was the most advanced in the world—that it would protect us from invasion and destruction.

God Has the Answers

Sputnik has warned that we are not first, at least in intercontinental missiles. It also reminded us that physical science alone should never have been our sole hope for security. It was the error of the last century to put all hope in physical science and to forget about God altogether. Twentieth century people are wiser in this respect. They do not want to forget God. But often they do not remember Him.

God created the sun, earth, planets, and man. He gave us our life now and is our hope for salvation and life after death. God knew from all eternity that Sputnik would be launched. He alone knows fully well what it means for the world.

The wise man turns to God first for strength and courage. He prays fervently that God will give him that peace which the world cannot give.

Must Do Our Share

As each ICBM rocket is launched, the Christian continues to hope. He knows that God sees and watches over us. The Christian knows that the world is in the hand of God.

This trust in God who is our final hope does not excuse us from working out a solution to world problems. Trust in God gives us a firm foundation on which to work. It is up to us to do our share. We must pray as if all depended on God, but work as if all depended on us.

As loyal citizens we encourage the development of our national defense; we cooperate in civil defense programs. Those who are in charge of the government need our support and encouragement. We applaud every legitimate means to defend our country and the world. But we must also pray.

The Russian satellites may not tell Americans much about ionic pressures or the curvature of the earth. But if we learn from Sputnik how to get down on our knees and ask God's help, we will have learned a great deal. A Sputnik in the sky signals "beep, beep" down to earth. We on earth can beam our prayers up to God in heaven.

Laguna Woods

Mrs. Robert Anderson
Fieldbrook 9-2857

Mrs. Art Aiello had a koffee klatch Nov. 21 in her home on 139th st. Laguna neighbors were introduced to Mrs. Aiello's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Jones and daughter Melinda of Roswell, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. William Garvin have moved into their new home on 139th st. and are "next door neighbors" to the William Donohues.

New residents met their neighbors at the dinner preceding the Saturday night Firemans dance held at the Jack Gibbons restaurant. The couples who were able to attend the Laguna Woods Home-Owners dinner and their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Westlund, Jack Nelsons and their guests Mr. and Mrs. B. Holly of West Pullman, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, the Frank Militello's, the Mollo's, Ralph Leelands, Al Karres, Robert Andersons, Art Aiello's, Fred Diekmans, William Garvins, William Murphys, Walter Biedermanns, The Carl Olson's and their guests. After a leisurely dinner the couples joined other neighbors at the Firemans dance at Saenger hall in Tinley Park.

The couples who were unable to attend the dinner and met later at the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Eckel, the Mathew McBrides, William Donohue's William Sneddens, Chris Manos, Mose Hegyi's.

Saturday night, Nov. 16, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Westlund of 137th st., were awaiting the arrival of guests who formerly lived in Chicago and are now making their home in Porto Rico. The Westlunds were attending to last minute details in the kitchen when they suddenly noticed a long procession of cars on 80th ave. As they watched, they remarked it must be a group of youngsters returning from a football game and on their way to a party, and as they continued to watch the lights on each car were turned off simultaneously and darkness prevailed. A short while later their bell rang and upon opening the door they were greeted with "Surprise!" as a group of 65 friends and relatives came from Mrs. Westlund's club and office and Mr. Westlund's office. They had met at 135th and Harlem at 8:30 p. m. and at 8:45 were on their way en masse to the party. The guests brought all the refreshments and gave the Westlund's a gift of money to buy the kind of fireplace screen and equipment they had wanted. Mrs. Westlund's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sundberg, of Chicago were the instigators of the successful surprise party.

Tuesday, Nov. 26, Mrs. Chris Manos and Mrs. Robert Anderson worked as Volunteers at the Oak Forest infirmary distributing library books and magazines to the bed-ridden patients. Anyone having books or magazines that they no longer want may give them to Oak Forest. Mrs. Anderson will be glad to take them out for you.

The pre-teen-age choral group met Nov. 22 at the home of Mrs. Al Karre to practice Christmas carols. Mr. Karre accompanied the children on the organ. Miss Janine Nelson organized the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guetter were installed as worthy matron and patron of the Eastern Star chapter at Oak Lawn Friday evening. Mr. Guetter was on the Orland police force last year and Mrs. Guetter is the Avon representative in Laguna. Mrs. Carl Olson of the Maple Chapter was a guest of Mrs. Guetter.

LINCOLN ESTATES

Mrs. Martha Ott was hostess to a group of neighbors and friends recently at a demonstration party.

Thomas Guth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guth has been out of school with the flu.

Mrs. Joseph Gudgeon and son Danny were confirmed in St. Mary's church at Mokena. After the confirmation Mr. and Mrs. Gudgeon and Danny and Mr. and Mrs. James Gudgeon, went to Chuck Cavalinni's restaurant in Midlothian for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bushong have been sick with the flu. It seems the flu bug has really taken over. Danny Gudgeon has been out of school also.

Little Miss Donna Wyantteis spending a few days in the Joseph Machtemes home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tyler have received word from her nephew, Robert Emperor of the birth of a baby boy, born to them, Nov. 3. He weighed five pounds, 12 ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emperor are living at Ft. Lewis, Wash., where he is stationed in the armed forces.

Dairy Must Answer In Village Suit to Collect Water Bill

(CNS)—Judge Harold G. Ward has extended to Nov. 29 time for Reuter's Dairy company, 9834 S. Kedzie, Evergreen Park, to answer the village's superior court suit to collect alleged unpaid water and sewer service bills.

The village seeks a judgement of $4,051.48 representing alleged unpaid water and sewer service bills from April 1, 1953 to June 30, 1954. The total charge for that period was $4,480.60 but the dairy has paid only $426.12 on the bills, according to the suit drafted by Attorney Peter G. Schultz.
